

PARIS AREA HEAVILY BOMBED TODAY; REPORTS FROM BERLIN STATE GERMAN TANK DIVISIONS APPROACHING CITY

Nazi Authorities Claim Chalons-Seur-Marne Occupied, and 200 French Tanks Captured—Reich Expected To Forward "Ultimatum" To Paris

(By International News Service)

TOURS, France, June 13 — The Paris area was heavily bombed this morning shortly after the capital was proclaimed an open city, according to reports by American Embassy officials here today.

BERLIN, June 13 — With German tank divisions "approaching Paris, Berlin authorities claimed today that the town of Chalons-seur-Marne has been occupied and 200 French tanks captured.

Chalons-seur-Marne is 90 miles east of Paris, and 30 miles south of Rheims.

The German high command announced today more than 100,000 French and British soldiers have been taken since the main offensive was launched on June 5th.

The German announcement said Paris already is within range of Nazi guns.

With matters rapidly approaching a climax, it was understood that the Reich will shortly forward an ultimatum to Paris, requesting unconditional surrender. The ultimatum will probably be similar to that served upon Warsaw in the Polish conflict.

An authoritative German source told International News Service:

"We will exhaust every possible means to avert destruction of the city."

The official communiqué said, "Attempts of British and French troops to withdraw near St. Valerie to escape to the sea, failed." The British have admitted they have much ammunition stored in St. Valerie.

PARIS, June 13 — A French counter-offensive near Begumot-sur-Oise, 17 miles north of Paris, has advanced five miles against German forces, a French military spokesman in Paris stated today.

"Our troops are holding everywhere," the spokesman said.

"However, there is a delicate point in the Champagne sector where the Germans are pushing here in order to separate our armies from the Maginot line."

Throughout the front, they have thrust 120 divisions—estimated to be the maximum available—into the battle.

He said the Germans were pushing westward against Le Havre and also were trying to encircle Paris from the west.

The Allied air force, he added, were extremely active within Germany. The French bombed Mannheim, Neustadt, and Frankfurt, while the British attacked many convoys and columns and lines of communication.

Miss A. Ciotti Honored On Her Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Silvio Ciotti, Wood and Taylor streets, entertained friends on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Anna Ciotti, Jefferson avenue. The affair was a surprise party for Miss Ciotti, in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent dancing, and Mr. Ciotti entertained with accordion solos. Refreshments were served, table decorations being in yellow and white. A bouquet of cut flowers was used as a centerpiece. Miss Ciotti received many gifts.

Those present: the Misses Julia Tomesani, Patricia Donofrio, Lena La-Rosa, Anna Tullio, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Juno, Eugene Ciotti, Fred Galych, Alfred Tomesani, Bristol; Miss Rose Carbone, Holmesburg; Miss Betty Barbetta, Langhorne; Misses Mary Galych and Margaret Galych, Tullytown; Anthony and Alfred Parisi, Conestoga.

SONS OF LEGION

The bi-monthly meeting of Sons of the American Legion will be held this evening at 7:30 in the Bracken Post home.

To Give Borough Flag

An American flag, 10 feet by 15 feet, is to be given to Bristol Borough as part of the Americanism program in connection with the July 4th celebration to be held here on Independence Day.

The committee which is now soliciting funds for this public demonstration of Americanism, has mapped out a program for the entire day. The morning, afternoon and evening programs will feature Americanism.

It is the object of the committee to stress Americanism and to impress it upon the minds of the youth of this area. Such a demonstration is certainly needed just at this time, the committee thinks.

Each child attending the three moving pictures will be presented with a small American flag and will be told of its meaning.

Contributors To July 4th Fund

A fund is being raised through public subscription to defray the expenses of an Americanism demonstration which is to be held here on July 4th. The purpose of the demonstration is to inculcate the principles of America into the youth of this area and to develop a greater reverence for those things which are sacred to America and its institutions. This is the second annual celebration to be sponsored by the Committee which last year had a balance remaining, which with interest earned, amounts to $357.66.

ACTIVITIES INCREASE, SURGICAL DRESSINGS

Seven Women Gather On The First Day; 14 on Second; Number Increasing

ASK FOR KNITTERS

The chairman of surgical dressings, Mrs. Theodore B. Megargee, announces that the work in that department of Red Cross activity, is well under way.

Monday, the beginning of the making of surgical dressings, saw seven women giving enthusiastically 18 hours of work. On Tuesday, with 13 women present, 34 hours were spent in making these much needed helps to those who are looking after the wounded on battlefields.

Mrs. Megargee is desirous of completing 2200 dressings this week. With millions of soldiers engaged in warfare, it is imperative that the women of Bristol give of their time generously, and that many offer their services, it is said.

The community house, Dorrance and Wood streets, is the place where women can co-operate, and they will be cordially received. They are asked to take a coverall and a covering for the head.

Failed To Give Firemen Right of Way; Is Fined

YARDLEY, June 13 — At a hearing before Justice of peace Frank Robinson, Charles Brisco was fined $10 and costs for failing to give a fire apparatus the right of way.

When the firemen were summoned to a fire at the store of William Mollneux, Jr., Woodside, a distance of about two miles, Brisco headed toward the fire, holding the middle of the road, it is said. Ignoring sirens, horns and commands from firemen, Brisco, it is claimed, was only forced from the road, within sight of the fire.

Officer James Marion reprimanded Brisco.

JUNIORS' INSTALLATION

The final meeting of the Junior Travel Club is scheduled for this evening at 6:30, it to be held at the home of Mrs. Franklin Wallin, senior advisor, Pine Grove. A box luncheon will be a feature, and officers of the organization will be installed.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

A district memorial service of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows is scheduled for Sunday, June 23rd, in Bristol Methodist Church, the hour being 2:30 p. m.

ITALIANS AFFIX SIGNATURES TO LOYALTY PLEDGE

Large Group Renew and Reiterate Pledge of Allegiance To United States

TO DEFEND THEIR HOMES

Will Join in Aid and Defense of "Our Country in Event of Attack"

Fidelity to the land of their adoption is being expressed by the Italian residents of Bristol who have taken a decided stand against war, unless war is necessary to defend their homes in this land in which they have been given equal opportunities with others to rear their children, and have freedom of worship. The Italian residents here have taken a decided stand against Fifth Column activities and are now perfecting an organization to fight subversive activities.

At a meeting held May 26th an outline of a proclamation was given verbally to the group by Anthony Russo. Allegiance to such a proclamation was pledged and on June 2nd another meeting was held. At that meeting those present attached their signatures to the proclamation which today was released for publication by the committee. Of course, the committee, states that there are many other Italian residents here who are loyal to the principles of America and whose Americanism is not questioned. "The reason their names are not given herewith is due to the fact that they were not present at the time of signing."

The officers of the association are: Anthony Russo, chairman; Dr. Joseph Pasceri, vice chairman; Joseph Alta, 2nd, recording secretary; Thomas Juno, financial secretary; Andrew Accardi, treasurer.

The proclamation reads: Whereas, We, the undersigned, being citizens and residents of the Borough of Bristol, in the County of Bucks and State of Pennsylvania, and vicinity thereof, and

WHEREAS, we view with much apprehension and grave alarm the armed conflict which is raging among foreign nations, and

Whereas, We are fearful that in the chaotic conditions now prevailing the integrity and unity of this, our beloved United States of America, might be attacked either from within or without, and Whereas, we have made the United States of America our home by adoption and all of us, with our families, enjoy the benefits and fruits of a beneficent republican form of government, and

Whereas, Many of us are owners of property, and our children have been born and are being educated and reared in the United States of America, and

OTTSTOWN ORGANIZES A COMPANY OF FIREMEN

Located in Most Sorely Needed Section of Bucks County; 48 Members

HOPE TO SECURE ENGINE

OTTSTOWN, June 13 — A fire company organized here, in a section of Bucks County where it is most sorely needed, is the culmination of months of planning. The company of firefighters was perfected here on Tuesday evening, with Russell T. Ferris being chosen as president.

The nearest fire company to this village is at Plumsteadville, seven miles distant; the next being at Erwinna, nine miles; and others at Riegelsville and Springtown, 12 miles away. The need of a band of firemen to protect the large area now practically unprotected in this vicinity, has been recognized for many years, and at the third meeting of a group of interested men, gathered for further discussion on Tuesday, the organization was perfected.

Chris. Weaving was elected treasurer; and the president of Bucks County Firemen's Association, James E. Groome, was present to address the gathering.

The official name chosen is Ottstown Volunteer Fire Company, and to date 48 members have affiliated.

The firemen have hopes of securing a piece of apparatus within a few months.

A Bright Idea

(By "The Stroller")
There are back-stops and back-stops, but the one in Middletown township, just over the Bristol township line, is the one that intrigues us.

For this "back-stop" on the sand-lot diamond was at one time a bed spring, probably lulling someone to many a night of repose.

Now the sections, separated to form a "V," thus to stand upright, prove a great aid to the kid catcher who probably misses them once in a while.

Mrs. Frank Lynn, Beaver street, was tendered a surprise shower on Tuesday evening by the Misses Helen and Violet Burtonwood, Beaver street.

A social time was followed by a repast. The table was decorated in blue and white, and a bouquet of roses formed the centerpiece. Each guest received a favor.

Those present: the Misses Jane and Viola McAuley, Edna May Helling, June McLaughlin, Helen and Violet Burtonwood; Mrs. Jack Lynn, Mrs. Ida Boehringer, Mrs. Alfred McLaughlin, Bristol; Mrs. John Walker, Mrs. Frank Lynn and Miss Hazel Lynn, Edgely.

Italian Resident Here Is Claimed by Death, Wednesday

A member of Bristol's Italian colony, Mrs. Elisabetta Fioranti, died yesterday at her home, 415 Lafayette street. She was the wife of Pio Fioranti.

Mrs. Fioranti, a native of Italy, had been ill but a few weeks. She is survived by her husband; two sons, Louis and Joseph, of Bristol; her mother, Mrs. Caterina Congelli; a sister, Mrs. Tilda Mazzanti, of Bristol; and three others, Guido and Vincenzo Congelli, Bristol; and Sabatino, of Italy.

Thomas G. Gallagher, Sr., Resident of Edgely, Dies

EDGELY, June 13 — Thomas G. Gallagher, Sr., a resident of Edgely for the past 12 years, died in Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon, following a lengthy period of illness. Mr. Gallagher, who was 84 years of age, suffered a serious attack of pneumonia during the winter, and his condition had been grave since that time. He entered the hospital a few days before his death.

Mr. Gallagher came to Edgely from Maple Beach, and prior to that resided in Philadelphia.

The husband of the late Catharine Gallagher (nee Bushnell), he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Thomas G. Hawken; and two sons, Thomas G. Gallagher, Jr., Toledo, O.; and Major Walter Gallagher, Villa Nova.

For a period of 30 years Mr. Gallagher was employed by the U. S. G. I. he being engaged as a construction engineer, retiring in 1929. Very active in Masonic circles, he was a past master of Covenant Lodge, No. 456, F. & A. M., Philadelphia; and was a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. At the time of his death he was serving as president of the Oak Building & Loan Association, and also of the New Century Building & Loan Association, both of Philadelphia.

The service will be conducted at a funeral home at 1807 Pine street, Philadelphia, on Saturday at one p. m., with interment in Sunset Memorial Park. Friends may call Friday evening.

Want Better College Co-operation

Harrisburg, June 13 — Failure of college and university authorities to co-operate with the Federal Government today, threatened seriously to curtail the nation's civilian aviation training program in Pennsylvania.

Faced by the knowledge that only 21 of Pennsylvania's 54 accredited institutions having men students were carrying aviation courses, the Civil Aeronautical Authorities are now attempting to line up more of the state institutions of higher learning. Unless the C. A. A. can induce additional Pennsylvania educational institutions to co-operate in the training program, Pennsylvania may place a much smaller group in this phase of the nation's defense program than its stature among the states would warrant.

Two Burned To Death in Car

Pittsburgh, June 13 — An 18-year-old Southside girl and her widower sweetheart, who had planned to be married this month, were burned to death today in a parked car in a Mifflin township lover's lane, police said. Although their bodies were burned beyond recognition they were identified as Mary Rokloki and Alfonso Osowski, 34-year-old father of three children. A .38 caliber revolver with one empty and four loaded chambers was found on the front seat of the car.

British Aid in Paris Defense

London, June 13 — Recently arrived British troops are fighting with the French in defense of Paris, London military circles revealed today, as the War Office disclosed a number of British and other Allied effectives had been captured by the German forces in the coastal province of Normandy, west of Paris.

There was no definite announcement regarding Le Havre, but military officials said the town has not necessarily fallen.

Announcement that Paris had been declared an open town was interpreted in London as meaning that the outskirts and approaches will be defended but that there will be no street fighting inside the city.

British informants declared that the German thrust around Rouen and the Seine appears to have slackened slightly, with a major attack now concentrated on Paris and southward from Rheims.

Release War Materials To Allies Soon

Washington, D. C., June 13 — Release of more than $100,000,000 worth of additional war materials to the Allies is expected this week as the Administration moved swiftly today to carry out President Roosevelt's pledge of the substantial aid to the British and French.

WORK OVER 4 HOURS IN VAIN EFFORT TO SAVE LIVES OF TWO

Hundreds Watch Stark Drama of Attempted Resuscitation of Bristol Lads

SILVER LAKE TRAGEDY

Arrange For the Funerals of Michael DiPalma and Francis Gallagher

Stark drama was enacted yesterday afternoon on the shores of Silver Lake, with a gallery of spectators coming and going, numbering into the hundreds.

The "actors" in this human tragedy were volunteers too numerous to mention, who made a heroic but vain effort to save the lives of Michael J. DiPalma, 15, and Francis J. Gallagher, aged 11, both of Corson street. The "actors" consisted mainly of the Croydon unit, Bucks County Rescue Squad; Bristol Consolidated Fire Department, Croydon Fire Department, Bristol police; Bell Telephone Company employees, and other volunteers.

The two youths were the victims of a boating accident, the first fatal incident to occur on Silver Lake since its reconstruction. The boys went to a watery grave at 10:45 yesterday morning, as the home-made kayak in which they had been paddling, overturned off the north point of the "island." It is stated that DiPalma made an effort to save the younger lad as the two struggled in the water. DiPalma could swim but a trifle, state members of his family, while the Gallagher boy could not swim at all. In an effort to save the Gallagher child, Anthony Mucce, Lincoln avenue, states that he was forced to "break" the strangle-hold which the lad gained on him. Thomas Meyers, Croydon, who reached the scene close behind Mucce, was unable to reach either lad before they went under.

The body of DiPalma was recovered at 11:15, and he was pronounced dead by deputy coroner, Dr. James P. Lawler, at three p. m. The lifeless body of Gallagher was recovered at 11:50, and he was pronounced dead at 3:25 p. m.

Gallagher's body was brought from the bottom of the stream by a crew from the Croydon Fire Company in a rescue boat which the company maintains. The crew consisted of Harry English and John Trotter. DiPalma's body was brought to the surface by Joseph Burns, Bristol Consolidated Fire Department, Daniel Crosson, and two WPA workers.

Immediately upon landing the bodies on the shore, a large area was roped

Close Tie Needed Between Realtors and Attorneys

DOYLESTOWN, June 13 — Charles Ermentrout, Southampton attorney, delivered the main address last evening, at the June session of Bucks County Real Estate Board, in Doylestown Inn.

Mr. Ermentrout, during the course of his talk, the subject of which was "Looking at Realtors Through the Eyes of An Attorney," showed the members how real estate operators appear to members of his profession. "There should be a close tie between real estate men and attorneys, for they have so much in common," was one expression.

Several interesting cases within the scope of his experience were cited by the speaker. He told of a case won in Florida, mainly through one important word, that of "enforce," which dates back to the time of feudal law. In those early days, he explained, the word "enforce" was used to designate the situation where ground was given to another, the giver being privileged later to require something in return, such as military activity, fruits of the soil, or service of other type. He also told of an important tax case in Kentucky. On the problems of delinquent taxes and of tax sales, Mr. Ermentrout told that these are dangerous questions. After discussion the taxation committee decided to consider these questions at length.

Richard Fechtenburg, Eddington, and Charles Heyer, Bustleton, were in charge of the program, last evening; with Thomas B. Stockham, Morrisville, directing the business session which followed dinner. Fifteen were in attendance.

Richard Palmer, representing a fire insurance company, was welcomed as an affiliate member.

RUBBER FROM OIL

Stern necessity proverbially is known as the mother of invention. Out of necessity ingenious man has made innumerable cunning contrivances from such familiar things as trees and dirt. The ability to make available for many new uses materials which to ancestors of the present generation appeared to have slight value is most commonly denoted by the German word for substitution. Ersatz is not, however, a peculiarly German practice. On the contrary, in civilized nations it represents the fruit of the ingenuity of scientists.

Take rubber, for instance. Rubber has not been with man from the beginning. It was developed out of trees and serves man's many purposes. But if the basic material for rubber, so necessary to mankind in this machine age, is found in trees, why not elsewhere? Why not in the ground from which trees get nourishment? Scientists have found an answer. Petroleum now has been discovered to have another by-product—rubber.

Rubber out of oil is declared to have the properties of rubber out of trees and in addition many others which hitherto have not been known or utilized. This announcement by one of the great oil companies of an engineering and commercial feat is of great importance to American. Company officials say they can manufacture rubber of a character to meet all needs and in whatever quantity is desired as fast as plant extensions can be made. If so, this is another strong factor to American self-sufficiency.

THEY CARRY ON

The signs from abroad are not all depressing. Good news from Europe is little news, but it is hopeful news nevertheless.

In Washington Congress is debating the acceptance of the Finnish payment on its war debt. Finland, as usual, is ready to meet its obligation to this country. The Russian conquest has not changed the character of the Finnish people.

Hope springs eternal, too, in the hearts of other conquered peoples. The Belgian pavilion at the New York World's Fair has reopened its doors and raised its flags at the order of the exiled Belgian government. Only one thing is conspicuously lacking: The marble bust of Leopold. A courageous spirit looks beyond the loss of country and the loss of faith in its king to a time when Belgium will once more be in loyal Belgian hands.

Small signs like these may be overlooked as German guns thunder at the gates of Paris and a jackal nation which is Italy joins Hitler on the battlefield in the hope of sharing in the expected loot, but they are indications that conquered nations do not cease to exist, that life goes on behind the lines, that national spirit cannot be stamped out by thirty-ton tanks or by the decrees of a military conqueror.

Has anyone thought to inquire what our good neighbors to the south are doing about meeting the invader if and when?

It gives one a sort of sickly feeling to recall that Brigadier General Billy Mitchell was court-martialed and retired on half pay because he criticized his superiors' lack of interest in war planes.

Congress is beginning to tax taxes. Taxpayers should be calm at this time, however. The big tax blitzkrieg will come next year.

NEWS BRIEFS FROM SUBURBAN TOWNS

LANGHORNE

The Langhorne Friends First day school will hold its annual picnic on June 22nd, at Clover Park.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Evelyn Markley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Markley, to Alfred Davison, Princeton, N. J., in the Langhorne Presbyterian Church on June 22nd.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. Stanley Addis, Brookline, L. I., were recent visitors of Mrs. Wilmer S. Black. Other visitors were: Mrs. Donald K. Oakley and sons, Robert and William, and daughter, Ruth Louise, of Bethlehem.

Mrs. Hildegarde Musante, New York, has been spending some time with her brother, Carl F. Claassen, and family. Mrs. Gilliam LaRue, of Holland, Pa., has returned home after a visit of several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. LaRue.

The property formerly owned by the Episcopal Church, and recently purchased by Joseph Lindenfeller, is being converted into an apartment house.

The Langhorne Epworth League will sponsor a strawberry festival and entertainment in the church school rooms, on Friday evening.

Laura Jean Candy is convalescing from a tonsil operation, performed on Thursday, in Abington Hospital.

CROYDON

In Wilkinson Memorial Methodist Church, on Sunday night, a pageant was given by children of the Sunday School. It was entitled "Nature's Summer School." Those taking part were: The Misses Rhyma Leary, Ruth Tyler, Lillian Keates, Margaret Graham and Evelyn Harrah. A musical, with Mrs. Walter Rice in charge, was given by the younger scholars. The pageant was under the direction of Mrs. Ella Labor, Mrs. Thomas Dolde and Mrs. Doran Edwards. On Sunday morning, Children's Day was also celebrated with recitations and singing by the scholars; also an object lesson.

son by the pastor, the Rev. George C. Lawrick.

Charles Paulsworth, Burlington, N. J., was a week-end guest at his son Frank's home.

Mrs. Charles Schwieker spent a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kruttsch, near Huntingdon Valley.

HULMEVILLE

Mrs. Herman Coar, Philadelphia, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Afferbach, Jr.

A card party will be held in Grace Episcopal parish house, tomorrow evening. Proceeds will augment the Sunday School picnic fund. Playing will start promptly at 8:30.

Last week-end was spent at Seaside Heights, N. J., by the Woman's Auxiliary of Grace Church. Many of the husbands and children accompanied the members.

Further information can be had by telephoning Mrs. Megargee, 2920.

Groups of women from Church societies and clubs have been working wholeheartedly for the reduction of suffering.

A kitchen table is very much desired and will be gladly accepted at headquarters, 120 Mill street.

Women are asking for wool in order to make socks and sweaters. This can be obtained from Mrs. Clarence Moyer, North Radcliffe street, or from an attendant at 120 Mill street. All women who can knit are asked to do so immediately.

Mrs. Holland, executive secretary, and Mrs. William DuHamel addressed a group of women, members and friends, of American Red Cross, at Hulmeville, yesterday.

Red Cross officials state that a very small proportion of workers are paid for services. There are no "extras" paid to volunteer workers, for they offer service for the benefit of the welfare of mankind.

Italians Affix Signatures To Loyalty Pledge

Whereas, The freedom and prosperity in the future of ourselves and our loved ones are coincident with the continuance and preservation of the United States of America, and

Whereas, We view with much alarm the insidious attacks which have already been made upon the integrity of our nation from irresponsible persons and societies from within our borders, and also are gravely apprehensive of attack from without, and

Whereas, We believe that the parent country from which we emigrated must and does realize that, while we still retain our love for our native country, yet by our oaths and obligations we have forsaken allegiance to such foreign nation and pledged our undying allegiance to the country of our adoption, the United States of America, and

Whereas, We are firmly convinced that our native land and its authorities would expect us to be true to the land of our adoption to the same extent as such parent country would expect its naturalized citizens to be faithful to the land of their adoption, and would understand and approve of our course of rallying to the defense of our adopted land from any attack from within or without, which would affect its future existence.

Now, Therefore, Be It And It Is Hereby Resolved, That we do hereby renew and reiterate our pledge of allegiance to the United States of America and its government and officials.

By It Resolved, That we do further pledge ourselves, not only personally, but with all our resources, to come to and join in the aid and defense of our country in the event of any attack, either from without by any foreign nation, or insidious attacks from within by agitators and by influence of foreign agents, and by that agency commonly known as the "Fifth Column."

Granzow Dance Recital Eagerly Anticipated

"Room" is the title of the number in which Miss Winterer will appear. She will also have a singing part, and the minuet in swing will be by Jeannette Parr and Buddy Lynn, in this particular number.

Promised to be the best dance recital she has yet staged, Miss Granzow and her aides have worked tirelessly in preparation for Friday evening's event. The production, "Stars of Today and Tomorrow," will include 23 numbers in act one, and 19 in act two.

Such titles as "Good Morning" for the first number, on through "By the Sea" with the sand pail girls and the sand shovellers; "Stars and Stripes Forever," "Voices of Spring," "Poet and Peasant," are alluring during act one, as are many others.

In act two there will be such numbers as "Mexican Hat Dance," "Mardi Gras," "The Merry Milkmaid," "Rope Jivers," "Magic Dolls," "Cosack Dance," "The Dying Swan," "Army Versus Navy," and countless more to thrill the large audience which is anticipated to pack the theatre.

The number just prior to the finale by the entire cast is the "Army Versus Navy" number, with some dancers as the "Army," others as the "Navy," with the third part, "The Spirit of '76," by courtesy of the American Legion.

There are acrobatic, tap, ballet, and other specialty presentations, both as solo, duet or ensemble numbers. The pianist for the show is Miss Olive Winslow. Miss Granzow will personally direct each of the dances. Her presentations will be by pupils who are scarcely more than infants, children, young folks, and some adults.

Brenninger, Langhorne; William Edward Wolfe, Doylestown; Bachelor of Science in Education, Claire Ward Habel, Richboro; Betty Madelyn Smith, Yardley; Bachelor of Science in Commerce, Chester Owen Gegan, Perkasie; bachelor of Sacred Theology, Joseph Horace Barnes, Jr., Langhorne; Frank Herbert Stroup, Ivyland; bachelor of laws, F. Calvin Lunderback, Yardley; doctor of surgical chiropody, Theodore Alfred Hansen, Morrisville.

Three outstanding figures in the field of education, law and the arts will be the recipients of honorary degrees at the exercises in Municipal Convention Hall, when approximately 1,200 students received diplomas. They are: George V. Denny, Jr., president of Town Hall, Inc., New York, and founder and moderator of the Town Meeting of the Air; Judge Albert B. Maris, of the United States Circuit Court, Philadelphia; Mrs. Stella Elkins Tyler, sculptor, patron of the arts, and donor of the Stella Elkins Tyler School of Fine Arts of Temple University.

A fourth honorary degree was conferred posthumously upon Miss Elizabeth F. Miller, deceased nursing alumnus. Both Mr. Denny and Judge Maris received the degree of Doctor of Laws, while Mrs. Tyler and Miss Miller were awarded the degree of doctor of humane letters. Mr. Denny delivered the commencement oration.

Dr. Charles E. Berry, president of Temple, preside at the ceremonies and conferred the honorary degrees, as well as degrees in course.

The Great Game of Politics

the Italian entrance into the war, and he could not deal with it other than he did—that is, he could not deal with it otherwise and avoid dishonesty. Those who have been clamoring for candor in our foreign policy ought to be pleased—and most of them are.

IT does seem, however, that the stand taken by Mr. Roosevelt clashes with his desire to have Congress adjourn on June 22 instead of recess. The logical move to support his words is to ask Congress now to repeal the Neutrality Act and the Johnson Act and every other act that interferes with making all our material resources available to the Allies. The need now is for prompt Congressional action that will make it possible to do openly what under Presidential order we are doing by subterfuge. Under the circumstances, it would seem that the Administration effort to force Congress to quit might be abandoned.

AND there is another reason. Despite the efforts of inspired New Deal columnists to make it seem that everything in the Defense Commission is lovely and the President and Mr. Knudsen are sweethearts, there is trouble ahead of a serious nature. The bottom fact is that the labor legislation which the New Deal has put on the statute books interferes with the speed of production and greatly increases the cost. In addition, there are the union-labor regulations which bind the apprentice schools and which make it impossible for the supply of skilled labor to equal the demand.

SOON or late, if the job of preparedness is to be done even reasonably well, Congress has got to modify some of this New Deal legislation and the unions have got to relax their rules. But, unless the President leads in the effort to bring these things about, they are not likely to be done at all. Up to now Mr. Roosevelt's attitude has been that no such relaxation is necessary, and certainly no support for relaxation can be expected from the extreme radical labor leader—Mr. Sidney Hillman—whom he has put on the commission. As things stand now, New Deal laws, which Mr. Roosevelt does not want touched, stand in the way of the maximum industrial production desired. Everybody knows that, and pretty little stories about how much Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Knudsen love each other do not alter the facts.

THE truth is that the defense program is making extremely slow progress because the obvious things have not been done and because of the insistence upon keeping it a New Deal project. The fact seems to be that Mr. Roosevelt, while calling upon the people for sacrifices, is unwilling to sacrifice any of his own pet ideas in the interests of speed, volume and economy. On the contrary, his position is that, whatever is done, these must not be disturbed.

ANY suggestion that they be modified or suspended he regards as inspired by reactionary greed. In brief, the typical New Deal attitude toward business has not changed. It never will change. Businessmen are summoned to Washington and businessmen are asked for co-operation, but the co-operation must be on New Deal terms. A nation in our condition of complete unpreparedness cannot quickly prepare on those terms. Soon or late Congress or the country will have to do something about it. Picnic of W. C. T. U. is Held Tuesday At The Keene Home

Miss Mary Haines, of the Keene Home, entertained the Bristol Women's Christian Temperance Union, Tuesday evening. After partaking of a picnic supper, the women adjourned to the drawing room, and enjoyed an old-fashioned social hour, where the talents of the members were displayed in verse and song, and guessing contests on magazines and flowers.

Mrs. Lefferts presented a recitation learned when she was but a child; Mrs. William Betz, Mrs. West, Mrs. Dampman, Miss Bertha Upde and Mrs. Anderson delighted with well-chosen selections.

Mrs. Ada Sands and Mrs. William DuHamel rendered a vocal duet, "In the Garden;" Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson rendered an operatic piano solo, and also accompanied the singing of old-time favorites. Miss Betty Beswick also helped to make the evening a success by her piano playing and singing. The theme song of the Union, "Home Sweet Home," was sung by all, after which a few minutes of silence were observed in memory of a beloved deceased member.

Mrs. Harry Headley, in charge of the occasion, announced that the next meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church of Our Saviour, July 9th, at eight p. m., at which time the annual election of officers will be held. After the benediction, the annual picnic of the order was concluded.

Today's Quiet Moment

(By Howard L. Zepp, Th. M.)

Redeem our thinking. Make us aware of our responsibility whether or not we shall entertain angels or devils as our mental guests. Our best thoughts are our best friends, and our next best friends are those who give us best thoughts. Let our thinking be acceptable in Thy sight. Amen.

ON THE SCREENS

GRAND THEATRE

Meet a distinguished group of the Earth's First Citizens—Tyrannosaurus, Triceratops and a few other monsters that were dictators of the world millions of years ago.

You've probably seen their reconstructed skeletons in museums, but in the motion picture "One Million B. C." you'll see them as alive and realistic as beasts around an African water hole. Hal Roach Studios, where "One Million B. C." was made under the direction of Hal Roach, declines to disclose the technique used in breathing life into creatures dead and fossilized these many eons.

This is a guide to enable you to identify the dinosaurs who play important parts in the film, which is slated for a gala premiere at the Grand Theatre today.

BRISTOL THEATRE

Because Producer Harry Sherman, maker of the popular "Hopalong Cassidy" outdoor action romances, is an open-minded sort, there will be comedy galore in future "Hoppy" films, just as there is in Zane Grey's "Knights of the Range," which opened yesterday at the Bristol Theatre.

One of the most side-splitting and fun-filled comedies of the year was unveiled last night at the Bristol Theatre when Hal Roach presented that inimitable pair of comics, Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy in "A Chump at Oxford," which is released under the auspices of United Artists.

RITZ THEATRE

Giving Mickey Rooney his first portrayal of a real life character, a role in which the boy star has an opportunity to prove that he is a genuine actor, "Young Tom Edison" opens at the Ritz Theatre today for an engagement of two days.

Not only does this picture present Rooney with his first biographical role but it is the first such role ever given a juvenile player, despite the fact that many adults have played real-life characters repeatedly.

"Young Tom Edison" also marks the second teaming of Mickey with Virginia Weidler, who scored as his nemesis in "Out West With the Hardys." She plays his sister in the present picture, a role which Hollywood believes will definitely make her a star.

BRUCKER MAKES DEBUT ON MOUND FOR "FARMERS"

"Dave" Landreth Introduces
His New Find From U. S.
Naval Academy

WAS ALMOST HITLESS

Struck Out 11 and Only Three Balls Were Hit To Outfield

Last night at Landreth Ball Park the "Farmers" defeated the 19th Ward Republican Club from Philadelphia, 7 to 0. The game was 1 to 0 up to the sixth inning.

Manager Landreth sent to the mound his new find, Jerry Brucker, formerly of the U. S. Naval Academy, and although the boy was somewhat wild, issuing six passes, he was practically unhittable. He held the visitors to a lone hit which was made in the eighth inning and on which there really was some question as to whether it was a hit or an error. He struck out 11 and only three fly balls were hit to the outfield. The "Farmers" scored one run in the 4th and put on heavy hitting exhibitions in the 6th and 8th, when they made three runs in each inning.

David and Liberatore led the attack. Eddie made two doubles and a single, and Larry two singles, a double and a home run. Breslin made the longest hit of the day—a terrific home run to deep left center.

The 19th Warders sent to the mound Nelson Baines, who is the property of the Cincinnati Club and who pitched last year for Durham. If he had had the same support as Brucker the game would have been much closer.

The "Farmers" have wanted a good right-hander to help out with the pitching and it looks like Brucker will fill the place.

Port Richmond of the Philadelphia City League will oppose the "Farmers" at the ball park on Sunday at three p. m.

BURLINGTON SPARTONS STOP BRISTOL A. A.

Held to six hits, Bristol A. A.'s winning streak came to a halt last evening on Leedom's field as the Burlington Spartans scored a 6-1 victory over the localites.

Joey Harris was the colored moundsman who held the A. A. to the sextet of safe blows. Harris was supported by wonderful plays on the parts of his mates and had an easy time checking in with the triumph.

Bristol failed to take advantage of the several scoring opportunities presented and ran the bases in a lackadaisical manner. An error by Gorsely and Harrison's two-bagger accounted for the local's only marker.

"Lefty" Stover who pitched for the boys of Johnny Mulholland had nine strikeouts but was hit hard in the pinches. The Burlington team worked the old-fashioned "squeeze" play to success several times and also flashed the hit-and-run play successfully several times.

Gorsely with two out of two and Glosson with two out of three were the leading swatters for the colored team. Stallone played good ball for Bristol.

Uphold School Board Decision

Trenton, N. J., June 13—Charles H. Elliott, State Commissioner of Education, today upheld the Pensacola township school board's exclusion from school of 10 children whose parents refused to have them vaccinated. While the parents objected to vaccination on religious grounds, school officials barred the children last September because of the lack of the vaccination. Counsel for the parents asked the commissioner to revise the board's ruling.

Egypt Expected To Enter War

Cairo, Egypt, June 13—Egypt, which has several diplomatic relationships with Italy, will declare war if she is attacked "militarily or otherwise," Premier Pasha declared today.

Any threat to Egypt will be met with force of arms, he said. A Reuters dispatch from Cairo said well-informed Egyptian circles consider Egypt's entry into the war only a question of days.

TULLYTOWN

A meeting of the Board of Health will be held in the fire house this evening at eight o'clock.

William Carman and Carl Stroup were passengers in an airplane on a short flight, piloted by the trans-Atlantic flier, Clarence Chamberlain.

ROHM & HAAS NINE HAMMER VOLTZ BATTERS

Eight runs in the first helped the Rohm and Haas team lace the Voltz-Texaco batters last evening on the Maple Beach diamond before a large crowd. It was the second defeat in a row for the Voltz team and greatly injured their pennant hopes. Final tabulations were: Rohm and Haas, 14; Voltz-Texaco, 5.

The chemical workers added a quartet more of markers in the second and finished in the sixth with two more. However, in the number of hits, Voltz was one behind Rohm & Haas, 10-9.

Wilson Holland did the throwing for the winners and after the early lead given him took matters lightly. Jimmy Cooper, Johnny Schweizer, and Harry Bery were the three Voltz hurlers who suffered on the hill.

Not only were the twirlers hit hard but the gasoliers were very erratic in the field, eight errors being chalked against them.

could not be desired than these days of unrest throughout the world.

To help you make this affair a success we are sending you herewith our check in the amount of $25.00 to be used as you see fit.

Sincerely yours,
NEUBAUER BUS COMPANY.

EDWARD W. NEUBAUER,
Secretary.

The following letter was received from the Mill Street Business Men's Association:

June 10, 1946:
Mr. Anthony Russo, Chairman,
Bristol 4th of July Celebration Committee.

Municipal Building,
Bristol, Pennsylvania.
Dear Mr. Russo:

On behalf of the Mill Street Business Men's Association may I take this opportunity to express our complete sympathy and approval of your plans for Bristol's second major celebration of the Fourth of July in several years. At our regular June meeting, held last Thursday, our president, Marty Green, urged that all members of our Association co-operate to the fullest extent. His suggestion met with immediate approval.

Rest assured that our members will co-operate to the best of their ability, as they did last year.

With best wishes for a completely successful day on July Fourth, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
JOSEPH H. ELBERSON,
Secretary.

Work Over 4 Hours in Vain
Effort To Save Lives of Two off, and automobiles parked at right angles to keep back the crowd of curious, and those eager to revive the youths went to work in relays. Never has a scene, similar to this, been enacted in this area. Bristol Consolidated Fire Department erected an improvised tent, made of tarpaulin stretched upon ladders and plaster boards. The two bodies were laid upon blankets on the ground; and as resuscitation crews worked in relays, inhalators were put to use. Although hope was given up by many at 12 o'clock, the volunteers refused to leave their posts while there remained the least possibility of their efforts meeting with success.

"How long will you work on the bodies?" Jesse Carr, chief of the Bucks County Rescue Squad, was asked. His reply: "If it was my boy I would not give up under three hours, and what I would do for my own, I will do for others." Three 80-gallon tanks of oxygen, were exhausted, but two others of larger capacity were immediately provided through the courtesy of Rohm & Haas Company.

A crew of Bell Telephone employees, consisting of Walter Sutton, Frank Hespell, Glenn West, William Tereson, Turner Ashby and James Stewart, with all the equipment of the Bristol station, which is used in such cases, joined the group and worked until the last minutes alongside of the others.

Sisters of the drowned boys added pathos to the scene as they milled about the crowd and kept close to their kin. Lawrence Gallagher, father of the one lad, was on the shore when his boy's body was recovered, and he had to be assisted to his home. Later, however, he returned to the spot to watch efforts at resuscitation. A sister, Theresa, refused to leave the side of her brother, until the last shred of hope had vanished.

No dense was the crowd that state police patrolled the enclosed area constantly, while Chief Jones was on duty in the roped-off area, keeping those permitted therein back a sufficient distance from the workers. An ambulance of the rescue squad was constantly in attendance. Priests of St. Mark's and St. Ann's parishes were present to administer last rites, and to offer condolence to members of the families. Mrs. Louise Lohr, state nurse, was also at the scene.

Frank DiPalma, father of the one lad who met his death, was unmindful of the tragedy enacted here during the day, which was on the tongues of thousands, until he arrived in Bristol well after 4:30 o'clock. It was impossible for members of his family to reach him at his place of employment with the Pennsylvania Railroad. The DiPalma youth was one of nine children. He leaves seven sisters and one brother. Born in Bristol, he attended Bristol high school, having just completed his Freshman year.

The Gallagher boy was the youngest of seven children, he having four sisters and two brothers, as well as his parents, who survive. He had just completed sixth grade work at St. Mark's parochial school.

Saturday has been chosen by both families as the day for last rites.

The funeral for the Gallagher boy is arranged for Saturday, from the home of the parents of the deceased, 617 Corson street, at eight a. m. Solemn Requiem Mass will be said in St. Mark's Church at nine o'clock, with interment in St. Mark's Cemetery in charge of the William I. Murphy Estate.

The DiPalma funeral will be conducted from the residence of the deceased, 635 Corson street, Saturday at 9:30 a. m., with High Mass in St. Ann's Church at 10:30 o'clock. Galzerano will be in charge of interment in St. Mark's Cemetery.
